GREATEST PHOTOPLAY OF SEASON IS HART IN "HELL'S HINGES"

Spectacular Offering at the Orpheum by Famous Triangle Star. Is Second Only to "The Birth of a Nation"

Spectacular in the extreme, replete with situations which, though trite, carry a great appeal to the most critical; and wonderful, when considered as a whole, was "Hell's Hinges", which played at the Orpheum yesterday and last evening and which will be repeated this afternoon and tonight.

"Hell's Hinges" is a simple story.
It carries the gospel to the edge of civilization, where the gospel has to fight to live. It takes the scriptures, personified, into the worst of Hell's half acre, and though obliterated, remains unconquered to the end. In the fact that it is human; it loses—yet it wins.

In William S. Hart, who takes the part of Blaze in the story, had man, despotic, near-bully, but a man with nerve, is had a conventional character with one great exception. It is William S. Hart playing the role. He brings it out of the conventional and makes it stand as, perhaps, no other actor of the screen could do. He literally picks the much-abused badman-turned-good out of the rut and turns him into a living personality; into a great character; into a worshipped idol of the cinema—in short, the best man of the particular character who has ever been seen on the screen.

The burning of Hell's Hinges, the town of iniquity in the story, is enough in itself to make the story stand out as an exceptional photoplay. The dramatization, the detail, the workmanship and the acting remain one of only a single picture—"The Birth of a Nation". Its wealth of detail, its reasonableness, its carrying power and its lesson are "put across" with a "punch".

"Hell's Hinges" will be repeated this afternoon and tonight. It is one of many motion pictures.

STORM PREVENTS THE OPENING OF STORE

Big Gift Night of Teal Show Will be Staged This Evening With Comedy

Owing to the rain storm last evening the Raymond Teal Company did not give a performance at the Lowell Airdome last night. In consequence, the scheduled "Country Store" feature will be presented this evening, when $100 worth of valuable presents will be given away. Mr. Teal has the reputation to do nothing by halves, which is amply shown by the class of performances he presents. The Country Store will be conducted on the same lavish scale. Where other managers when introducing a Country Store in connection with their performance usually give away a five-cent tin whistle, or a bar of cheap soap, Mr. Teal gives away whole buskets full of all kinds of groceries, fruit, candies, etc., also wearing apparel, ladies hand-bags, toilet sets, etc.

Those attending the Airdome tonight will open their eyes in utter astonishment and wonder how it can be done. Tonight will also be presented for the first time in the Warren District, the latest musical comedy sensation, "Tom and Jerry". This is a legitimate comedy with a real plot, and has also the usual number of new and up-to-the-minute singing and dancing numbers running through it.
All those holdin' coupons issued at previous performances should be sure to bring them tonight as they may draw some of the numerous prizes.

SILVER SERVICE TO COME.
Owing to the delay experienced in the making of the silver service which will be given to the United States battleship Arizona, upon its completion, the itinerary of the service's trip through Arizona, when in inspection, has been changed. Bisbee will see the set first. It will then be sent to Douglas and from there will go to Tucson and other points in the state. It will be remembered that in the latter part of May and the first of June money was raised for the payment of the cost of the silver which is one of the most elegant sets obtainable.

BABY KILLS RATTLES.
Armed with a butcher knife, little Gertrude Morrison, the five year old daughter of a rancher living near Roosevelt, killed a large rattlesnake when it threatened to attack her. A.
N. Morrison, father of the child, found his little daughter carving the rattler in a field near the house. He thought she had discovered a dead snake but upon investigation found that the "reptile" was still moving slightly.
